

Work Experience

Setflow Senior Front End Engineer

July 2023 - Now

- In my role as a Front End Engineer, I leverage my proficiency in Next.js, Tailwind CSS, and MUI (Material-UI) to drive the development of new features for our company. Collaborating closely with a talented team of developers, I actively contribute to the improvement of our Next.js project. From conceptualization to implementation, I ensure the seamless integration of cutting-edge technologies and design principles. Additionally, I play a vital role in refactoring our existing codebases, optimizing performance, and enhancing maintainability. By promptly addressing bugs and issues, I reinforce the stability and reliability of our application, ensuring a superior user experience.
